

CONGRESS OF SALVATION at WINNIPEG conducted by THE GENERAL

SATURDAY
Nov. 6 to

THURSDAY
Nov. 11

Saturday, 3.30 p.m.
The Citadel
YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY

Saturday, 7.00 p.m.
Grace Church
SOLDIERS AND EX-
SOLDIERS

Sunday, 10.30 a.m.
Dominion Theatre
SOLDIERS AND OFFICERS ONLY

Sunday, 2.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bld.
CONVENTION HALL
LECTURE: "THE SAL-VATION ARMY"
His Honor, Sir James Alkins,
will preside.

Sunday, 6.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bldg.
CONVENTION HALL
SALVATION

Monday, 7.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bld.
CONVENTION HALL
MISSIONARY DEMON-STRATION

Tues. and Wed.
OFFICERS' COUNCILS

Thursday
STAFF-OFFICERS' COUNCILS
Commissioners Lamb, Law-
ley and Eadie will support
The General

PRAY FOR THE GENERAL

PRAY FOR
THE CONGRESS

—and now for Canada West!

The General

The WAR CRY

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA WEST

O BRAMWELL BOOTH GENERAL • WILLIAM BOOTH FOUNDER • WILLIAM EADIE COMMISSIONER O

No. 28

WINNIPEG, NOVEMBER 13, 1920

Price 5 cents

General Bramwell Booth

AS ANNOUNCED THE GENERAL WILL CONDUCT A GREAT CONGRESS AT WINNIPEG—NOV. 6 TO NOV. 11
(FULL REPORT WILL APPEAR IN OUR NEXT ISSUE)

A Strenuous Offensive Maintained

More Successful Harvest Ingatherings—"Seek to Save" Campaign Launched at Many Points

LETHBRIDGE, Alta.—Successful Harvest Thanksgiving—On Sunday and Monday, Sept. 26 and 27, the Citadel was tastefully decorated for our Harvest Festival services. Lieutenant Eds spoke on "Thanksgiving" in the morning meeting. In the afternoon meeting a hearty welcome was given to Sister Mrs. Taylor, Corps Cadet Florence Taylor, and Sister Wild from Medicine Hat.

The following recruits were enrolled as soldiers: Brother Gude Hardy, Brother and Sister Lapping, Brother and Sister Thompson.

The Citadel was crowded at night. The Band played while the soldiers and friends marched to the front and deposited their gifts on the altar. A number of candelabra spoke and Adjutant Hardy delivered an earnest address.

On Monday night a short service was held previous to the sale of goods. Sergeant-Major Mundy disposed of all the things in a creditable manner, and the record sum of $150 was realized.—H. D.

VERMILION, Alta.—October 8 was our Harvest Festival Sunday. Captain Acton of Edmonton was in charge for the week-end. Four souls gave themselves to God. Hall of Fame. On the following Monday we had our Harvest Festival sale, the first held in Vermilion. Proceeds of all descriptions were contributed by many kind friends. Captain Acton was the auctioneer. All the goods were disposed of, and the amount realized was $80. Praise the Lord!

EDMONTON III.—The week-end meetings, Oct. 9 and 10, were led by Staff-Captain and Mrs. Larson. God came very near at Knox Drill. Our Young People's work is going ahead. The attendance on Sunday was eighty. The Staff-Captain spoke to the children. We regret that Sister Mrs. Mann, our Y.P.C.M., has been quarantined for diphtheria, but she is now able to be out again. After a rousing Open-Air Salvation meeting was held, followed by a hard-fought prayer meeting. Three souls knelt at the Cross, Hall of Fame. On Monday night we had our Harvest Festival sale. The effort has been very successful and the comrades have worked faithfully. Captain DeBevoise has been welcomed and is leading us on to victory.—Corps Cadet.

KAMLOOPS, B.C.—We are glad to be able to report progress. Our Harvest Thanksgiving service on Sunday, Oct. 8, was conducted by our Divisional Commanders, Brigadier and Mrs. Coombe. They visited Sister Lawson at the hospital, after which they held the meeting with the Young People. Their work of counsel was very much appreciated.

In afternoon, we went to Frank-Henry-Beaumont, where Divisional and Mrs. Coombe conducted a meeting with the mothers. The sum of the children's work by their presence at their meeting, and we had a very stormy day. An Open-Air was afterwards held in Chinatown.

The Salvation men was one of great blessing and heart-searching. A good crowd was present and Mrs. Coombe's address was well received. Two souls volunteered for Salvation and claimed the victory. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion and we had a display of vegetables, flowers and fruit. Our recent converts are doing fine, for which we praise God.

Edmonton I. Band

VISITS WETASKIWIN AND CAMROSE—STAFF-CAPTAIN LARSON, DIVISIONAL OFFICER, ACCOMPANIES—SPLENDID CROWDS AND EXCELLENT RESULTS

On a recent Saturday afternoon, in autos placed at their disposal by kind friends and comrades, the Edmonton I. Band left for their annual visit to Camrose, Alta., which is about eighty miles from Edmonton. The roads were very bad, and poor time was made to Leduc, which was reached about 4:30. Here an open-air service was held, judging by the crowd and also the collection given, was very much appreciated. We arrived at Wetaskiwin too late for an open-air, so proceeded on our journey to Camrose, 80 miles distant, and arrived about 10:30. Captain and Mrs. Norberg welcomed us, and after a hurried supper we went for a short open-air service, and then proceeded to wait for us and followed to the church for the Festival, although it was nearly dark and the weather was present. The program was heartily appreciated by all. Commandant Goddard was in the chair in the absence of Staff-Captain Larson, the auto he was travelling in day morning, about 9 a.m. we had a farewell to Camrose, also to Captain and Mrs. Norberg, who worked very hard to make us comfortable and the meetings a real success. About 11 a.m. we arrived at Wetaskiwin. Here we found every one full of excitement and looking for our arrival. The first person to greet us was Lieutenant Doris, who had arrangements in hand and led us to the hotel. Our minds as to the welcome that awaited us. After an excellent report we went to the two hospitals and rendered a few selections to the patients, and then we held an afternoon open-air, which was a very large crowd attended. Another open-air in the evening, and once more an expected crowd awaited us. At 8 p.m., after perhaps the best of our trip, the writer has been in, we reached the hotel, and the singing of the Band on the corner of the church awaited us.

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.—Matt. xi. 28.

having a slight breakdown, and he did not arrive until Sunday morning. Sunday was a great day, and all the bandmen enjoyed themselves to the full. In the morning an open-air preceded the inside service, which was conducted by Staff-Captain Larson. In the afternoon the Band gave a splendid program of music to a very large audience in the theatre. It was certainly a treat to the people. Before this program the Band played at the hospital, to the delight and comfort of the patients. At 7 p.m., under the leadership of Staff-Captain Larson and Commandant Goddard, another open-air service was conducted in the hospital, and the comrades gave a splendid account of themselves, and then we adjourned to the theatre. The audience filled the hall to capacity. The playing of the Band was splendid. Treasurer Holmes and Envoy Barker spoke, also Mrs. Staff-Captain Larson. After a well fought prayer meeting one soul was recorded. Monday.

TRAIL, B.C.—On Sunday, Oct. 8, the meetings were conducted by the Officers, Ensign and Mrs. Dupp. At the close of the meeting we had the joy of seeing two souls kneeling at the altar.—Beaumont.

On Friday, Oct. 3, Captain Maguire from Roseland paid us a visit.

On Sunday, Oct. 10, God again blessed us and we had the joy of seeing two more souls give their hearts to God.

We have had the pleasure of welcoming Brother and Sister Edgar. On Monday we had with us Brigadier and Mrs. Coombe, and in spite of and scores were unable to obtain admission. The chairman, His Worship Mayor Fowler, stated it was the biggest crowd he had seen in that city. Again the Band excelled themselves. Among the items was an original recitation by C.C. Moffat, composed on the trip. Staff-Captain Larson introduced the chairman, while Commandant Goddard expressed appreciation on behalf of the Band for the kind and those associated with him for the splendid program and arrangements of this visit. At daybreak we started once more for Edmonton, and too much cannot be said of the hard work of Lieutenant Doris to make our visit to Wetaskiwin the success it was, and as we left him it was with a deep sense of gratitude. We arrived in Edmonton happy in the thought that for three days we had been enjoying sunshine and blessing to all around.—A.B.

the heavy rain an Open-Air was held. The inside meeting was a very profitable one. Mrs. Coombe spoke very earnestly and much good seed was sown.

ORANDE PRAIRIE, Alta.—A spirit of thanksgiving was manifest in our Harvest Festival effort. On account of the late harvest the date was postponed until Oct. 9 and 10. The sale of the Band was well received. The serving of refreshment helped to make the effort a success. The service of refreshment and 500 cabbages were among the thank-offerings.—Opto.

And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.—Matt. xiv. 35.

INDIAN HEAD, Sask.—On Oct. 1 Staff-Captain Larson, District Officer, visited us. He spent five days with us, which included the week-end. On Monday, Oct. 4, the Staff-Captain conducted our Harvest Festival service very successfully. He also acted as auctioneer. From this sale we realized a considerable sum.

On Tuesday the Staff-Captain led a very interesting and helpful service meeting. Then on Wednesday he was to our outpost at Balcarres, returning to Regina Thursday. On the Sunday evening we had the joy of seeing three souls seek the Saviour.—H. Murray Dewar, C.C.

WINNIPEG VII.—On Sunday, Oct. 17, Captain Fox took for his subject in the morning "Heart Rocking" and two souls sought for a deeper work of grace. We had a splendid meeting at night.

On Monday morning (Thanksgiving Day) the Band and comrades went for a march, which was followed by a Thanksgiving service. One soul surrendered.

We have welcomed three comrades of late, Brother and Sister Cable of Kamora and Brother Meadows of Coleman, Alta.

VANCOUVER III.—On Sunday and Monday, Oct. 8 and 9, we held our Harvest Festival service. The inside meeting was held by Lieutenant Joyce of the Citadel. Many souls of God's goodness. At night Envy Wakefield led on.

On Monday night we held our Harvest Festival sale. Envy Wakefield disposed of the goods, and we raised over $60. We have smashed our target, and give God all the glory.—L. Reynolds, Lieutenant.

WINNIPEGOSIS (Outpost).—On Oct. 16, 17 and 18 the meetings at this outpost were conducted by Ensign McCaughy and "Dad" Shaw of Dauphin, Man. An Open-Air was held in the village, and the local comrades ably supported us. A good crowd gathered. After the Open-Air we drove to Envy and Mrs. Silvers, 8 miles distant.

On Sunday we covered over 40 miles driving to different schoolhouses. Three meetings were held and good crowds greeted us at each place. On Sunday afternoon Brother and Sister Silvers were commissioned to the rank of Envoys. These comrades have done and are still doing faithful service in that part of the vineyard.

On Sunday night the schoolhouse was packed. "Dad" Shaw's sinclair spoke was very effective. We also his message. The Ensign took for his lesson, "Know Him."

On Monday we drove some 10 miles to see "Oranthe" Saunders, who is 95 years of age. He assured us that all his life he has been a Christian. Ensign McCaughy and "Dad" Shaw arrived back in Dauphin on Tuesday morning. The meeting was very successful.—Med. Wing.

MOOSE JAW, Sask.—Welcome meetings to our new Chief Secretary, Lt. Colonel Morris, were held on Oct. 19, and it was a real treat to be present. His Worship Mayor Hamilton presided. The service was very successful. The service of refreshment and 500 cabbages were among the thank-offerings. The Divisional Officer, Captain J. J. Galloway, the Divisional Officer for Alaska, spent the week-end with us and conducted the meeting. The service was very interesting and many of the comrades were blessed and helped.—Amie.

A Strenuous Offensive Maintained

More Successful Harvest Ingatherings—"Seek to Save" Campaign Launched at Many Points

DAUPHIN, Man.—Once again the Messenger of Death has visited our Corps, and Brother George Robertson has answered the call. He attended the Harvest Festival service on Sept. 26. The Sunday previous our Brother gave his testimony of the keeping power of God. On Sept. 27, while working day, he was struck by a moving a house, and met with an accident. He was rushed to the hospital and lived about three hours. Mrs. McCaughy, his wife, was with him, and he said to her, "Lord, take me home." He suffered from a heart attack.

The funeral service was very impressive. Quite a number of comrades went to the grave-side, where a short service was held.

The Memorial meeting was conducted by our Officer, Ensign McCaughy, and Brother Silvers and Sergeant-Major Mrs. Haddrell had a few words to say. "Dad" Shaw was the soloist, and the humorous verse about the audience, "Why has Colonel Morris come to Regina?" and then went on to answer his own question, pointing out that the Colonel was here to help these phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

The Chief Secretary

LT-COLONEL MORRIS RECEIVES HEARTY WELCOME TO REGINA—HIS WORSHIP MAYOR GRASSICK PRESIDES, SUPPORTED BY OTHER PROMINENT CITIZENS

CANADA WEST'S Chief Secretary, Lt. Colonel Morris, was accorded a civic welcome at Regina on Wednesday, Oct. 21. The Band marched through the principal streets of the city and a good company gathered at the Citadel. The meeting opened with the rousing song, "Salvation Army, Army of God." Adjutant Olway read a Bible portion, and the Staff-Captain Miller handed the meeting over to his Worship, Mayor Grassick, who had kindly arranged to have the chair.

The Mayor spoke briefly, and recalled the early days of the Salvation Army in this town, as a very young lad, and Lieutenant Mitchell were in charge. His Worship also stated that in these days he was a frequent attendant himself. On behalf of the citizens he extended a very hearty welcome to the Chief Secretary.

Dr. W. D. Cowan, M.P., who is a great friend of the Army, in a somewhat humorous vein asked the audience, "Why has Colonel Morris come to Regina?" and then went on to answer his own question, pointing out that the Colonel was here to help these phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

Mr. J. J. Galloway, manager of the Merchants Bank and president of the Rotary Club, also extended a very hearty welcome to the Colonel, and expressed the hope that his efforts in this Territory would be crowned with success.

The Band ably rendered "Bridge-water" and "Ninth the Colors" and "Ninth the Colors."

Rev. Mr. Young, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, also welcomed the Colonel on behalf of the Presbyterian Association, and also, as he put it, "on behalf of himself." He spoke of the time when, as a very young lad, he was privileged to see the General passing through the streets of Glasgow. He respected the Army for its brotherly feelings, and spoke of the need of more of this spirit in the world, especially the Christian world.

The Songsters rendered "His love can never be told." The Colonel was then given a welcome such as Salvationists can give.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

ASSINIBOIA, S. Sask.—The first dedication witnessed in Assiniboula was conducted by Captain MacNichol on Sunday, Oct. 10. The event created considerable interest and a good crowd gathered.

On Sunday morning Mrs. MacNichol spoke on the Scriptures "And I will walk with God." At the close three souls consecrated their lives afresh to God. Sunday night one soul surrendered. We have announced our Harvest Festival target. Praise God—Interested.

HUMBOLDT, N. Sask.—Last week our Officers went to two adjacent towns, collecting for our Harvest Festival, and while there held open-air meetings. The people listened most attentively, and apparently enjoyed the singing. We are on the lookout for more opportunities of this kind. God's blessing is felt increasingly in our meetings. Praise God—Zealous.

MACLEOD, Alta.—On Oct. 4, Staff-Captain Lantis gave a very interesting lecture on "The Army work in India." The meeting was held in the Presbyterian church and a very good crowd attended.

The day following we went with the Staff-Captain to Clarendon. There is no Corps there. Rev. Mr. Locke (Methodist), the Staff-Captain's host, together with his congregation of two hundred, gave the Staff-Captain and Lieutenant Battery a hearty welcome.

VANCOUVER II.—On Sunday, Oct. 8, we had good meetings all day. One precious soul came forward and gave his heart to God in the afternoon meeting. At night we had another earnest meeting.

VANCOUVER I.—On Sunday, Oct. 24, we commenced our efforts in connection with the "Seek to Save" campaign. Adjutant Marritt spoke on, "One thing thou lackest" in the morning service. When the invitation was given a young man from the rear of the Citadel came forward and gave himself fully to the Lord.

In the afternoon the meeting was held in the Theatre Royal, which has been engaged for six weeks. A good crowd was present and apparently enjoyed the bright service.

At night the Songster Brigade met in the theatre at 7 o'clock and held a short service while the Band and soldiers were holding an open-air service at the B.C. Electric. The Band rendered an appropriate selection and the Songsters sang very effectively in the inside meeting. The Adjutant's address was on "Sin." Three sought pardon, making four souls for the first day.

Cottage meetings are being held every Friday night, which are well attended. There are four being held in our area.

Recently the Band and Songsters gave a musical program in aid of new instruments, and a new march composed by Adjutant Marritt was played. This was written by the Adjutant a few weeks ago while confined to the hospital.—Interested.

ESTEVAN, Sask.—God's Spirit was manifest in all meetings today (Oct. 14). God's grace, and new march composed by Adjutant Marritt was played. This was written by the Adjutant a few weeks ago while confined to the hospital.—Interested.

Nowhere would there be consolation, if religion were not—Jacob.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.—Matt. v. 17.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of Salvation Army work, inspiring his friends and soldiers present. His racy discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army.

Regina comrades bid the Colonel farewell and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

e l e e g ll
 t d ll
 p
 A
 e to at re
 e ar
 ed
 it
 it or in o ed
 ey as yr tie ps
 dy
 1 ace
 ch:
 ace
 inis is de-ro-and ave re-thy ave pa-la alla rou

CONGRESS OF SALVATION at WINNIPEG conducted by THE GENERAL

SATURDAY
Nov. 6 to

Saturday, 3.30 p.m.
The Citadel
YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY

Saturday, 7.00 p.m.
Grace Church
SOLDIERS AND EX-
SOLDIERS

Sunday, 10.30 a.m.
Dominion Theatre
SOLDIERS AND OFFICERS ONLY

Sunday, 2.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bld.
CONVENTION HALL
LECTURE: "THE SAL-VATION ARMY"
His Honor, Sir James Alkin,
will preside.

PRAY FOR THE GENERAL

THURSDAY
Nov. 11

Sunday, 6.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bldg.
CONVENTION HALL
SALVATION

Monday, 7.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bld.
CONVENTION HALL
MISSIONARY DEMON-STRATION

Tues. and Wed.
OFFICERS' COUNCILS

Thursday
STAFF-OFFICERS' COUNCILS
Commissioners Lamb, Law-
ley and Eadie will support
The General

PRAY FOR THE CONGRESS

"Here I am at Last!"

The General

WAR CRY

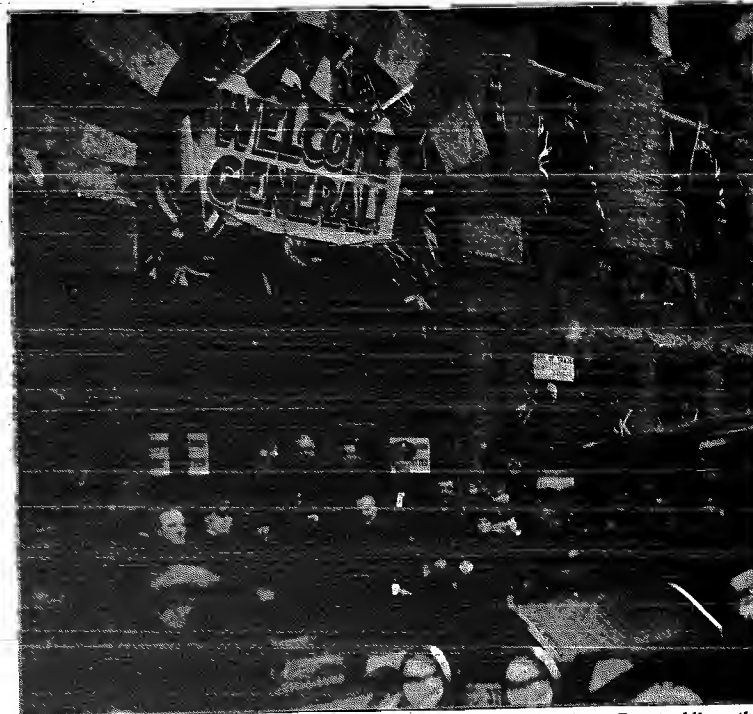

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA WEST
O. BRAMWELL BOOTH - GENERAL · WILLIAM BOOTH - FOUNDER · WILLIAM EADIE - COMMISSIONER

No. 29

WINNIPEG, NOVEMBER 20, 1920

Price 5 cents

Great Congress of Salvation at Winnipeg

THE GENERAL on arrival at the Citadel direct from the Railway Depot obliges the "Camera Man"

GENERAL BRAMWELL BOOTH and Staff reached Winnipeg, via the Canadian Pacific, on Saturday, Nov. 6, at 2.35 p.m., and were met and formally welcomed by Commissioner Eadie on behalf of Canada West Salvationists. Aldermen George Fisher and J. L. Wiginton, in the unavoidable absence of His Worship, Mayor Gray, represented the City Council. Notwithstanding the fact that no mention had been made of a public reception at the depot, a large crowd gathered, and greeted The General warmly as he stepped aboard the automobile which conveyed him to the Citadel, where he was given a most warm-hearted and typical Western Canadian welcome.

See page 8